Book Your Private Comedy Show Today!

Each of our shows features a group of performers that entertain with a series of short scenes, songs & sketches based on audience suggestions. The players take those suggestions and create the action on stage!

About ComedyCity

We're flexible, reliable, cooperative, on time, and really nice people. We even smell good. We tailor our show to meet your time, your budget and your audience.

ComedyCity is great entertainment for virtually any event. It's fun, exciting and clean. Call us and we will help you select the right option to energize your next get-together.

The possibilities are endless: anniversaries, office parties, birthdays, weddings, bar mitzvahs, graduations, reunions, Arbor Day, St. Patrick's Day, Groundhog Day, Doris Day, Day Light Savings...

ComedyCity can also conduct workshops for your group. Our enthusiastic and fun facilitators bring energy into topics like Teamwork, Communication and Creativity while instilling improvisation basics.

You never see the same show twice! Nothing is scripted, we make stuff up on the spot. It's comedy without a net.

We've been entertaining businesses, clubs, conventions, schools and gatherings of people all over Wisconsin since 1987!
